Dear Sir.

Last October my son. Fred. C. Gray, enrolled with the class for returned soldiers who had not passed their matriculation exams. before going overseas. I was under the impression he was attending regularly and studying diligently. Recently, however I have heard several things which gave me reason to think that either he had left the University altogether or was only frittering away his time here.

While I am willing to make any sacrifice for his benefit. so long as he is doing his utmost to improve himself. at the same time I believe that maintaining him in a life of wasteful idleness is not only wronging my self but is doing a still greater wrong to him.

I shall, therefore, be grateful to you if you will have enquiries made as to whether Fred is still attending his classes and if so if he is showing ordinary diligence in his studies. and let me know.

Thanking you in anticipation. I remain

Yours truly
(Mrs) A.O. Forsyth

Dear Mrs. Forsyth:

I very much regret to say that I find on inquiry your son, Mr. Fred C. Gray, withdrew from the classes for returned soldiers some time ago, and the University has had no information with regard to him since then.
